

Woodward & Lothrop.
New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

Our "Stag" Last Shoe for Women

SPECIAL attention is called to our new line of shoes made on this very popular last, consisting of

Demi Calfskin Lace,
Demi Calfskin Blucher,
short top;
Patent Calfskin Blucher,
Patent Calfskin Blucher.

One of the most stylish walking shoes of the season, and shown in all sizes and widths.

Special Price, $4.00 a Pair.
Third floor, Tenth street.

"The Finest of Everything"

Delicacies from Every Climate.

Not only America's finest, but the choicest from all other quarters of the globe are included in our stocks of TABLE LUXURIES. Many new and delicious dainties are now arriving daily.

Lowest prices for thoroughly desirable goods.

G. G. Cornwell & Son
Wholesale and Retail Grocers
1412-1418 Pa. Ave.

The Secret

—of having good sound teeth lies in caring for them wisely.

Lister's Dentifrice
—is a first essential to their proper care. It preserves the teeth as well as cleanses the teeth—keeps the gums healthy. No injurious action on the enamel. Price, 25c.

Thompson Pharmacy,
Frank C. Henry, Prop., 703 15th St.

BEST BY TEST

A million Operators agree with us when we say:
The "Standard" Rotary Sewing Machine is the Best in the World. Investigate it.

STANDARD SEWING MACHINE CO.
JOS. H. FISKE, Mgr., 602 9th St.

FIRE PROOF STORAGE.
—330-925 E ST. N.W.
—FURNISHING PACKING SHIPPERS

FIREPROOF STORAGE.
The greatest expense is often effected by selecting the best. If you contemplate storing your household effects, respect our warehouse. Separate locked compartments, $2 month.

Merchants' Transfer and Storage Co.
223-922 E Street. Phone Main 623.

3 Minutes To Baltimore By Telephone.

30c Day. 25c Night.

THE C. & P. TELEPHONE CO.
722 Twelfth St. N. W.
1407 R St. N. W.

COOK WITH COKE

—It is especially adapted for use in the range. Makes a fire that is just right for cooking. The price of coke is low, therefore it is not only the best, but the cheapest fuel to use. We'll supply you coke.

1 Bushel Large Coke, delivered, $3.10
2 Bushel Large Coke, delivered, $3.20
3 Bushel Large Coke, delivered, $3.30
4 Bushel Large Coke, delivered, $3.40
5 Bushel Large Coke, delivered, $3.50

WASHINGTON GASLIGHT CO.
413 TENTH STREET N. W.

Advertisers in The Herald

Are getting good returns from their investments. An ad. in this size, at the three months' rate, costs only a dollar a day.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Miss Gertrude Weyrich and R. A. Menefee Wed.

MISS AILEEN KERR A BRIDE

Weds Charles McIlvaine Harris at "Antrim"—Miss Josephine Shallenberger and Rev. Paul Sperry Married—A Number of Engagements Announced—Personal Notes.

A large company of relatives and friends assembled at the Church of the Epiphany last evening to witness the marriage of Miss Gertrude Weyrich and Mr. Randolph A. Menefee, who were attended by one of the largest bridal parties of the season.

The ushers who led the bridal procession were R. Y. McAllister, A. R. Gordon, H. Cassell, Francis Marquis, A. G. Sharp, and T. Lanham, all of this city.

Following the ushers were five attendant maids, including two small flower girls, Lily Gordon and Edna Marcey, who wore white net frocks built on white silk, with trimmings of pink ribbon and tiny pink roses, and carried baskets of pink roses.

Miss Bessie Menefee, of Warrenton, Va., the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Josephine Shallenberger, of Warrenton, Va., the bride's sister, were the bridesmaids. They wore white chiffon cloth, made with short train and finished in pink girdles. They wore wreaths of pink roses in their hair, and carried large clusters of white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle. Miss Marion Weyrich was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink crepe de chine and carried Golden Gate roses, also with a wreath in her hair.

The bride, who was escorted by her brother, Mr. John R. Weyrich, wore a beautiful gown of chiffon cloth, made in princess effect with elaborate trimming of pearls and lace extending from the throat to the hips. The interlining of the chiffon was rich white radium silk, making a particularly effective costume which was completed by a tulle veil, fastened by orange blossoms, and a beautiful bouquet of lilacs of the valley and bride roses.

Mr. Julian Menefee acted as his brother's best man. Rev. Edward M. Mott officiated. A reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Weyrich, followed the ceremony. Among the guests were the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Menefee, of Warrenton, Va.; Mrs. Robert Menefee, also of Warrenton, Va.; Mrs. M. Laws and Miss Laws, of Lynchburg, Va.

After a short honeymoon trip to Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Menefee will reside at 58 U Street.

"Antrim," the beautiful country place of Dr. and Mrs. James Kerr, near Warrenton, Va., was the scene of a pretty ceremony yesterday afternoon, when their only daughter, Miss Aileen Kerr, and Mr. Charles McIlvaine Harris, formerly of Philadelphia, but now residing permanently on his Virginia estate, were married in the presence of a small family party, including only the immediate relatives of the two young people. The bride had no attendants, entering the drawing room with her father, who gave her hand in marriage. Mr. Montgomery Harris was his brother's best man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Laird, of the Episcopal church, of Warrenton. An informal reception followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Harris left for an extensive Northern trip before taking up their residence in Virginia, where the former has recently purchased a handsome estate near "Antrim." Mrs. Harris made her debut in this city a few years ago, and is an extremely clever and accomplished young woman, with hosts of friends here and in Virginia.

Calvary Baptist Church was the scene of one of the largest of the autumn weddings yesterday afternoon, when Miss Josephine Shallenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shallenberger, of this city, became the bride of Rev. Paul Sperry, now of Bath, Me., but a former resident of Washington, and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sperry, of Q Street.

Rev. Samuel H. Greene, D. D., the bride's pastor, officiated, assisted by Rev. Frank H. Sewell, of the Church of the New Jerusalem, to which ministry the bridegroom belongs.

The church was tastefully decorated with tall palm trees and large bunches of pink and white chrysanthemums. The organ was presided over by Arthur D. Mayo, organist of the church, who played a short recital while the guests were being seated, and the wedding marches.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, Mr. W. S. Shallenberger, wore a gown of white silk, trimmed with tulle and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, tied with long, white satin ribbon. The bridesmaids wore gowns of pink tulle, trimmed with long white ostrich plumes, and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception and wedding breakfast were held in the home of the bride's parents in Mintwood place, when only the bridal party and relatives were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Sperry left during the afternoon for several weeks' travel, to end at their new home in Maine, where the former has a charge at Bath.

The bride's traveling dress was of dark brown cloth, with a hat to match. Mrs. Shallenberger, at the wedding and reception, wore a toilet of black lace over gray silk.

Miss Emily Levering Eckfeldt, of this city, and Mr. Edgar Adams Meely, of Atlanta, Ga., were married last evening at the Luther Memorial Church, on Thomas Circle, the pastor officiating. The ushers who seated the company, which was limited to the relatives and close personal friends, were Messrs. Lowry Dale, of Atlanta, and Henry Weaver, Arthur Piege, and Thomas Burnett Gardner, of this city.

ern trip, to end at their future home in Atlanta, where they will be at home after November 29 at 45 Columbia avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, of Baltimore, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eva Williams, to Mr. Conrad Meyer, of this city, on Monday, November 5, at the home of the bride. After a short honeymoon journey, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will live in Washington.

Mr. H. M. Fitz-Hugh, of Fairfax, Va., announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Alice H. Fitz-Hugh, to Mr. William I. Deming, of Washington, D. C. The wedding will take place early in the winter.

Miss Bertha McIntyre and Mr. Lawrence Brewer Battley were married yesterday afternoon at St. Stephen's Catholic Church, on Pennsylvania avenue, in the presence of an invited company, which was later entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents on K Street.

Miss McIntyre was escorted by her father, Mr. F. J. McIntyre, and her only bridesmaid, Miss Lily McIntyre, as her only bridesmaid. The latter wore a pretty gown of light blue chiffon, with large blue hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's gown was a white lace princess robe built on white silk, with which she wore tulle veil and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. M. R. Darrell was best man.

The service was performed by Rev. T. Gibbons Smyth, the assistant rector. The ushers were Mr. C. N. Caldwell, Mr. R. E. McIntyre, and Mr. William Byerley, all of this city. After a honeymoon trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Battley will live at 1623 T Street.

A pretty home wedding of last evening was that of Miss Eva Gladman and Mr. Charles E. Sabastian, which took place in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white lace, but no veil, and carried white chrysanthemums. Her attendants were Miss Fannie Paxton, who wore a gown of light blue chiffon, and little Miss Lucile Chambers, in white chiffon. Both carried chrysanthemums, the former pink, and the latter white ones. Mrs. Alfonso Parker was best man. The ceremony, at which Rev. Mr. Krauss officiated, was followed by a reception from 8 to 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Sabastian will live at 1231 Thirty-fourth street, which new home was the scene of their marriage.

Mrs. Katharine Cole, widow of Capt. George Cole, Seventh United States Cavalry, was married yesterday to Lieut. A. F. H. Yates, U. S. N., the ceremony taking place at St. Matthew's rectory. Rev. Thomas S. Lee officiating. The witnesses to the ceremony were Mrs. Ella, a friend of the bride's, and Lieut. Commander C. L. Hussey, U. S. N. The bride wore a smart tulle costume of gray and white, with small gray hat.

Following the ceremony the bridal party drove to the Raleigh for breakfast. Lieut. Yates and Mrs. Yates leaving later in the afternoon for New York. On their return they will occupy an apartment at Stoneleigh Court.

Mrs. Titian Coffey has issued cards for a tea Tuesday, November 27, at her home, 113 K Street, when she will present her granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Chew, to society.

Miss Chew was yesterday the guest of honor at a debutante luncheon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Robert S. Chew, on Woodley lane. The other guests present were Miss Isabelle Magruder, Miss Mollie Dodge, Miss Denny, Miss Johanna Schroeder, Miss Frances Goldsborough, Miss Symons, Miss Olga Converse, and Miss Stockton.

Mrs. William Ryan, who has been with Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan since the death of her husband, at Oak Ridge, Va., is now established with children in their new home, 1713 I Street.

The engagement is just announced in New York of Miss Adelaide Havenmeyer and Mr. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, both young people well known in society. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Havenmeyer, and the bridegroom-to-be is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Frelinghuysen, of Morris town and New York, and grandson of the former Secretary of State.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Hugely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Hugely, of this city, to Mr. Howard S. Austin, of Chicago, will take place at the Hugely home, 155 Fifth street northeast, November 14, at 10 o'clock. The immediate relatives of the contracting parties will be present. There will be a reception afterward. The couple will go South for a short honeymoon, and will return here to be the guests of the bride's parents for a week before proceeding to Chicago, where they will be at home after December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graham and Miss Graham have taken quarters for the winter at Afton House, Thirtieth street and Massachusetts avenue.

Cards announcing the wedding of Sarah Elizabeth Hugely, of Washington, to Mr. Howard S. Austin, of Chicago, are out. Miss Hugely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Hugely, and the wedding will occur on the evening of November 14, at 155 Fifth street. The members of the immediate family will be present at the ceremony, but a reception will be held immediately after. The bride and groom will leave for New York for a short honeymoon, after which they will return to Washington and be the guests of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Austin will live in Chicago, where they will be at home to their friends after December 1.

PAULINE HORTON ENGAGED.
Fiance is J. Hopkins Smith, Jr., of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morton, of 733 Park avenue, New York, have announced the engagement of their second daughter, Pauline, to J. Hopkins Smith, Jr., second son of J. Hopkins Smith, of New York. Miss Morton is about twenty years of age, and made her debut in Washington two years ago, when her father was Secretary of the Navy. Since Mr. Morton has been president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society he and his family have occupied the New York residence of Secretary of State Root. Miss Morton's fiance was graduated from Harvard in 1902.

Wedding Silver.
STERLING SILVER
Forks and Spoons, single serving pieces and silver-handled cutlery—the best productions in correct weights.

When quality is considered, our prices are The Lowest.

GALT & BRO.,
Established Over a Century,
Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,
1107 Penna. Ave.

ALL FOR TEMPERANCE

Workers from Many Lands Guests of Mrs. Henderson.

VISIT WASHINGTON ON TOUR

Since Leaving National Convention at Boston, Distinguished Foreign Ladies Have Been on Pleasure Trip. Received by President Roosevelt. Madame Yajima in the Party.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union workers from many lands gathered last night in the parlors of the home of Mrs. John B. Henderson, Sixteenth street and Florida avenue, at a reception given in their honor. Sixty women from various foreign countries, with a number of the local W. C. T. U. members, were in the throng which greeted the hostess and which viewed the pictures and works of art which adorned her beautiful home.

The visitors were delegates to the world's convention of the W. C. T. U., which recently met in Boston, and to the national convention in Hartford, Conn. After leaving the Boston convention the party spent a fortnight traveling through Canada and several of the Western American cities, arriving in Washington yesterday. They will remain here a day or two, when a number of the party will depart for Philadelphia, where they will sell for England on Saturday.

Yesterday at noon the delegates were tendered a reception by Mrs. Wilber F. Crafts at her home, 206 Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

At 2:30 o'clock they were received at the White House by President Roosevelt in the East room. The President made no formal speech, but shook hands with each of the delegates, saying a word in compliment for Philadelphia, where they will sell for England on Saturday.

Madame Yajima There.

Mme. Yajima was also a guest at Mrs. Henderson's reception last evening, and her rich Japanese costume was one of the most interesting of the many costumes present. Mme. Yajima does not speak English and is attended by a young and pretty Japanese girl who acts as her interpreter. Mme. Yajima is seventy years of age, and the president of the W. C. T. U. of the Island Empire. After signing the memorandum of The Herald reporter in Japanese, she bowed her acknowledgments of his courtesy and that of his "honorable party."

Among the other foreign guests at the reception were Mrs. Harriet Lee, of Australia; Mrs. and Miss Stroud-Smith, Isle of Man; Miss Anna W. Elliot, Bermuda; Mrs. Gordon Wright, president of the W. C. T. U. of Canada; Miss Sarah N. Callesper, Greece; Miss Ida Rogers, Sweden; Miss Agnes E. Slack, secretary of the World's W. C. T. U.; Mrs. B. N. Sheppard, London; Mrs. Martin, Mrs. L. Lowing, Miss A. L. Boulton, Mrs. J. E. Harron, Mrs. F. B. Brayne, Miss Thomas, Miss Criswell, Mrs. Lydia Wear, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. William Reid and Miss Reid, Miss Stonehouse, Mrs. Gaudy, Mrs. Turner, Miss Kenyon, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Shackleton, Miss Hawkins, Miss Patterson, Mrs. Clay, Miss Ina Smith, Miss C. E. Robinson, Miss Montieff, and Mrs. Halsey of England; Mrs. Gray, Mrs. J. Robertson, and Mrs. Macdonald, of Scotland.

As a member of the occasion Mrs. Henderson presented each of the foreign guests at her reception a copy of her book, "The Aristocracy of the World." In many of them she appended her autograph. Mrs. Henderson explained to her guests that she was something more than a foe of alcohol, saying that she fought against the use of all narcotics, including tobacco, tea, coffee, drugs, and opium. She said that she had written the book for them to read in their journey across the seas, and hoped that they would carry pleasant memories of their short sojourn in the United States.

MRS. STOCKTON'S NIECE WEDS
Bride and Groom at Bedside of the Novelist's Widow.

Stricken With Paralysis and, Fearing Turn for Worse, Aunt Insisted on Speedy Marriage.

Strong elements of both romance and tragedy have attended the marriage of Miss Mary Booker to Harold Goodwin, which took place in Georgetown yesterday. Both young people are well known in Washington, the bride being a niece of Mrs. Frank L. Stockton, widow of the famous novelist, and with whom she has spent most of the years of her life.

Although no announcement had been made of their engagement, it was widely known among their friends that a wedding was pending. Mrs. Stockton's ill-health being the only obstacle in the way of its consummation. When the aunt's condition took a severe turn for the worse a few days ago, she insisted upon a speedy marriage of her niece. The wedding took place in the Prince George, on Thirtieth street, where Mrs. Stockton has her apartments.

Mrs. Stockton returned to Washington the early part of last month after spending several months at the seashore, where she had gone for the benefit of her health. Soon after her return it was decided to sell the Stockton home, on P Street, and it is thought that the effort of moving to her present apartments had much to do in causing the paralysis from which she is now suffering. When consulted at a late hour last night her physician, Dr. Louis Mackall, said that no change had occurred in Mrs. Stockton's condition in the last two days. The young bride and groom are in attendance at the bedside of the ill woman, and everything that love and devotion can devise are being done to relieve the sufferer.

MISS HAVEMEYER TO WED.
Her Engagement to Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen Announced.

New York, Nov. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Havenmeyer to-day formally announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Adelaide Havenmeyer, to Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Frelinghuysen, of New York and Morris town.

The young man is a member of the Union Club and is a grandson of Frederick Frelinghuysen, who was a member of President Grant's Cabinet.

The bride-to-be made her debut two years ago and is a great favorite in society. She was an attendant at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Louise Peters, who will marry Harold H. Weekes, in Grace Church, Wednesday.

I SAW YOUR AD IN THE HERALD

ARMY ORDERS.

Transfers.
The following assignments to regiments of officers recently promoted are announced:
George S. Young, promoted from major, Eighteenth Infantry, to lieutenant colonel, Twenty-first Infantry, October 30, 1906.
Robert L. Bullard, promoted from major, Twenty-eighth Infantry, to lieutenant colonel, Eighth Infantry, October 31, 1906.

Lieut. Col. Bullard will proceed to join the regiment to which he is assigned. Capt. Oscar J. Charles, Seventeenth Infantry, will proceed to West Point, New York, and report in person to the superintendent, United States Military Academy, for duty at the academy.

First Lieut. Lawrence D. Cabell, Fourteenth Infantry, acting quartermaster, is relieved from duty at Havana, Cuba, to take effect upon the completion of his examination for promotion, and will proceed to New West Barracks, Florida, and report in person to the commanding officer of that post for duty, and by letter to the commanding general, Department of the Gulf.

Master Signal Electrician Oliver O. McCann, Port Omaha, Neb., will be sent to Seattle, Wash., reporting upon arrival to the commanding general, Department of the Columbia, for assignment to duty.

Lieut. Col. Charles H. Watts, Ninth Cavalry, is detailed for general recruiting service, and upon the expiration of his present leave of absence will proceed to Brooklyn, N. Y., and report in person to the examining board at San Juan, Porto Rico, at such time as he may remain on recruiting duty.

A board of officers is appointed to meet at San Juan, Porto Rico, Tuesday, December 11, 1906, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the examination of such officers of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry as may be ordered before it to determine their fitness for promotion. Detail for the board:

Lieut. Col. Hobart K. Bailey, Twenty-fifth Infantry, commanding Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry.
Maj. George R. Cecil, Thirtieth Infantry.
Maj. Ogden Rafferty, surgeon.
Capt. Edwin J. Griffith, Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry.
Contract Surgeon Luis G. de Quevedo, United States army.

The junior member, other than a medical officer, will act as recorder.
The following named officers of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry will report in person to the president of the examining board at San Juan, Porto Rico, at such time as he may designate, for examination to determine their fitness for promotion, and upon completion thereof will return to their proper stations.

First Lieut. William S. Woodruff.
Second Lieut. Teofilo Marzuach.
Second Lieut. Eugenio C. de Hostos.
Capt. Theodore B. Hacker, commissary, will proceed from Omaha, Neb., to Neah and Valentine, Neb., and Sturgis, S. Dak., for the purpose of inspecting the subsistence and quartermaster's places, and upon the completion of this duty will return to his proper station.

Paragraph 5, Special Orders, No. 25, War Department, October 29, 1906, relating to Post Quartermaster Sergeant Frank W. Arnold, is amended to read: "With permission to delay ten days en route."

Maj. Lawson M. Fuller, Ordnance Department, will proceed to the Bethlehem Steel Works, South Bethlehem, Pa., on official business pertaining to the inspection of ordnance material in process of construction.

Maj. William S. Peirce, Ordnance Department, will make not to exceed three visits per month during the months of November and December, 1906, and January, 1907, to the plant of the Bethlehem Steel Works, South Bethlehem, Pa., on official business pertaining to the inspection of ordnance material in process of construction.

Leave of absence for seven days is granted Second Lieut. DeWitt C. Jones, Corps of Engineers, to take effect upon the completion of his examination for promotion.

Leave of absence for four months, to take effect on or about December 1, 1906, with permission to go beyond the sea and apply for extension of two months, is granted Capt. Fredwell W. Moore, Twenty-first Infantry.

Leave of absence for one month, to take effect on or about November 15, 1906, is granted Capt. John B. McDonald, quartermaster.

NAVY ORDERS.
Capt. W. H. Emory, detached duty in command of U. S. S. Hancock, navy yard, New York, N. Y., to home and wait orders.

Capt. T. S. Phelps, detached duty in charge of navy recruiting station, San Francisco, Cal., &c., to navy yard, Mare Island, Cal.

Lieut. Commander A. S. Halstead, detached Chicago, to duty as inspector of ordnance, Union Iron Works, San Francisco, Cal.

Lieut. Commander F. H. Clark, jr., commissioned a lieutenant commander in the navy from November 2, 1906.

Lieut. C. L. Palmer, to Brooklyn.
Lieut. H. N. Jensen, detached Wisconsin, when placed out of commission, to Chicago, as acting quartermaster, and to duty as inspector of ordnance, Union Iron Works, San Francisco, Cal.

Assst. Surg. P. E. Garrison, detached Naval Medical School, Washington, D. C., &c., to duty as medical zoologist for the Bureau of Fishery, Manila, P. I., sailing from Seattle, Wash., November 28, 1906.

Pay Inspector J. S. Carpenter, detached duty as general storekeeper, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., &c.; to home, settle accounts, and wait orders.
Paymaster D. Potter, additional duty as general storekeeper, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal.

Professor of Mathematics D. M. Garrison, appointed a professor of mathematics in the navy from October 27, 1906.
Chief Boatswain M. Friedman, detached duty at navy yard, Washington, D. C., &c.; to Newport News, Va., for duty in connection with the fitting out Minnesota and for duty on board that vessel when commissioned.

Warrant Machinist J. V. Jacobson, detached Brooklyn when placed in reserve; to Georgia.
Warrant Machinist F. C. Lutz, detached Brooklyn to Boston, Mass., for duty in connection with the inspection of engineering material for the Massachusetts district.

The following officers registered at the War Department yesterday: Brig. Gen. C. H. Carlton, First Lieut. C. E. N. Howard, At the Navy Department, Assistant Surgeon H. A. May, Paymaster W. W. Ramsey, and Lieut. W. R. Gherard, registered.

Arrived: Washington, at Hampton Roads, from Newport News.
Sailed: Blankly, from Annapolis, on cruises, London, Florida, and San Juan, Colon; Marcellus, from Baltimore, for Hampton Roads.

WILL NOT BE DRUMMED OUT.
Dismissal of Colored Soldiers to Be Without Dramatic Features.

There will be nothing of the spectacular in the carrying out of the drastic order of the President for the dismissal from the service of the members of the entire battalion, composed of Companies B, C, and D, of the colored Twenty-fifth Regiment, because of their refusal to assist the authorities in disclosing the names of the men responsible for the killing of one and the wounding of another citizen of Brownsville, Tex.

There will be no drumming of the men out of the regiment, no dramatic features such as might attend the dismissal of an officer in disgrace. The recruit trainees will be called up, one by one, required to sign the pay-rolls, be paid the money due them, receive their notice of dismissal, and then be required to depart.

Steps are being taken to put the President's orders into effect. The rolls of the companies have been sent for, and in the official order to be promulgated by the War Department the names of the men will appear, together with the statement that they have been dismissed from the service "without honor," which means that they cannot again enter the service of the United States in either a military or civil capacity.

BRING BACK SOLDIER DEAD.
Transports Meade and Ingalls Discharged Caskets.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Newport News, Va., Nov. 7.—The transports Meade and Ingalls discharged their dead to-day, the boxed caskets being shipped to Arlington and other places for internment. The passengers left to-day for their homes.

Both the Meade and Ingalls will be attached to the new quartermaster's service between Newport News and Cuba. The transport Sumner arrived to-day from Cuba and will take back a large shipment of horses which will take the places of the animals washed overboard from transports in the recent storm.

Col. Waller Returns from Cuba.
Special to The Washington Herald.
Newport News, Va., Nov. 7.—Col. Littleton T. W. Waller, who was sent to Cuba to command the marines pending the occupation of the island by the army, arrived here to-day on the transport Sumner, and left for his home in Norfolk.

DEPEW'S HEALTH IMPROVES.
New York Senator Will Be in Seat in Senate December 3.

Ardley-on-Hudson, N. Y., Nov. 7.—It was learned to-day that Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who has been spending the summer and fall at the James Cunningham Bishop villa at Ardley, where he went to recuperate his last health, intends to move to his new home, in Manhattan, on November 18. It became known that Senator Depew intends to leave for Washington on December 3, and says he will be in his seat when the United States Senate meets.

He now spends most of his time playing golf on the Ardley Casino links, taking a short automobile cross-country trip, and attending dinner parties. He has greatly improved in health, and his appetite is splendid. Several nights ago he was a guest at a dinner party of society folk at the mansion of Gen. Howard Carroll, and just as the Senator was leaving his guests gathered around him, and when some shouted, "What's the matter with Senator Depew?" the answer from the crowd was, "He's all right."

DR. J. C. FERNALD LECTURES.
Talks to Y. M. C. A. on "Origin of the English Language."

Before an audience of 125 men in the Assembly Hall of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening, Dr. James C. Fernald gave the opening lecture of the series on English prose style, the topic being "The Origin of the English Language."

To Keep the Fires Going

EVERYTHING for attending to furnaces, ranges, and fireplace is here. Buy these "Hets" now that you may have them handy when needed.